Fruits: notes of strawberry, citrus and yeast. Good lively acidity, rich and balanced.

FOOD MATCH:

The wine pairing here is easy: anything and everything... or nothing but good times.

TECHNICAL INFO:

After halting primary fermentation, we brought the wine down to a very cool temperature and let it settle off of its primary lees. The next year we add fermented must of Xinomavro for the second fermentation, and disgorgement did not take place. This special bottling is done entirely by hand.
